

LabAutomation2011 Conference and Exhibition: Video/Audio Recording Contract

The SLAS policy for LabAutomation2011 strictly prohibits operation of tape recorders, video recorders, cameras, or camera phones, except for official association equipment, at all conference sessions, committee meetings, in the exhibit hall, and during the plenary sessions unless express, written permission has been granted. Any and all organizations ("organization") wishing to be granted permission to video and/or audio record at LabAutomation2011, must agree to adhere to the following stipulations:

- "Organization" will not profit from said video/audio recording; "Organization" may not charge exhibitors for participating in video/audio recording.
- "Organization" must gain written permission from any person or organization being video/audio recorded at LabAutomation2011.
- "Organization" must provide SLAS with video clips in MOV or Flash format (or another format to be agreed upon) to be placed on the SLAS website. If conversions or editing, etc. is necessary, the "Organization" will be required to make these changes or SLAS will make changes for a small fee.
- Video/audio recording will only take place on the Exhibition Floor during agreed upon days/times.

LIABILITY

"Organization" agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless SLAS, its officers, members, management and service providers from and against all claims, actions or causes of action, liabilities, and costs arising from the defense of any claim, action, cause of action or liabilities by "organization" pursuant to any activity connected with this program.

AGREEMENT:

_____ ("Organization") requests permission to video/audio record on the Exhibition Floor only at LabAutomation2011.

Filming will take place on _____ (days) between the hours of _____ and _____.

I, representative for "Organization," do hereby agree to adhere to said stipulations. Should I or any representative from my "Organization" disregard these stipulations in any way, permission to video/audio record will be immediately revoked and I will be required to leave the LabAutomation2011 Exhibit Floor and surroundings.
