SLAS Asia Honorary Advisory Board Announced

CHICAGO – The Society for Laboratory Automation and Screening (SLAS) proudly announces that 10 distinguished dignitaries have aligned themselves with the Society and its initiatives by agreeing to serve as members of the SLAS Asia Honorary Advisory Board.

Members of the SLAS Asia Honorary Advisory Board are making themselves available to advise SLAS leadership with high-level strategic vision, exceptionally informed perspective and outstanding global connectivity. The advice and counsel of the SLAS Asia Honorary Advisory Board ensures SLAS will move successfully forward across meaningful new horizons to fulfill its educational mission in Asia.

“SLAS has an important and growing presence in Asia,” says SLAS President Jeff Paslay. “We are grateful that our Society and its initiatives have gained the trust and support of these eminent and influential scientific leaders.”
